Our Process

Whether we're designing your kitchen, bedroom, bathroom, office or one single piece of furniture, the initial design process always starts with a blank sheet of paper.

The journey starts with you. We take your ideas and use them to create hand drawn plans and perspective sketches to bring your space to life. We explore all possibilities to ensure the end result is perfect for you and your space.

Hand drawn visuals help to quickly establish a direction for your project before moving onto digital software to refine your design. Layout planning and design sketching is fundamental to our service.

Visuals

Visual concepts play a huge role in your project. These help clearly identify whether we have interpreted your ideas correctly or if there are any areas that need adjustment.

Any discrepancies will be identified during this process, resulting in an installation that will be exactly what you desire.

Quotes

We would love to discuss your next project.

All our quotations are supplied with a full breakdown, ensuring that you are always in complete control of the budget.
